Christine Bader To Speak At BC Law

1/22/10--BC Law's Owen M. Kupferschmid Holocaust/Human Right Project, in partnership with the Women's Law Center, is pleased to announce "A Conversation with Christine Bader," to be held on January 27 at 4 pm in East Wing Room 400. The event is free and open to the public.

Bader is an Advisor to the UN Special Representative of the Secretary-General for business and human rights, Harvard Professor John Ruggie. From 1999–2008, she was with BP plc, during which she worked in Indonesia, China, and the United Kingdom. With stints in corporate planning and investor relations, she spent most of her time with the company managing the social impacts of some of its biggest projects. She has also served as a corps member with City Year; the first Teaching Fellow in Community Service at Phillips Academy in Andover; and a Special Assistant to the New York City Mayor's Chief of Staff and Deputy Mayor for Community Development and Business Services.

Christine has published articles in BusinessWeek.com, Stanford Social Innovation Review, Ethical Corporation, and China Rights Forum, and presented at numerous venues including Business for Social Responsibility's annual conference. She has a B.A. magna cum laude in American Studies from Amherst College and an M.B.A. from Yale University. She is a member of the Advisory Board of the Kenan Institute for Ethics at Duke University and a Term Member of the Council on Foreign Relations.
